814th Multi-Role Bridge Company set to deploy: Ceremony set for Friday

FORT POLK, La. – Fort Polk is hosting a deployment ceremony to honor the approximately 180 Soldiers of the 814th Multi-Role Bridge Company, 46th Engineer Combat Battalion (Heavy) at 10 a.m., Friday, May 25 at the 1st Combat Support Brigade (Maneuver Enhancement) Field, here.

The 814th will deploy in the coming days in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom 07-09 in order to provide personnel and equipment to transport, assemble, disassemble, retrieve, and maintain all standard U.S. Army bridging systems and provide transportation of palletized loading systems.

The 814th deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2003 and again in January 2005 to December 2005 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom III. The 814th received the Presidential Unit Citation for participation in the initial OIF Campaign. The proud and distinguished history of the 814th continues to grow.

Inclement weather is the Showboat Theater.

The public is invited to attend. Please come out and support your Soldiers.
